

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Half Moon Bay, CA, May 28, 2009 – All Covered, Inc. and Reece Computer Systems today announced their merger, effective June 1, 2009. All Covered is the nation's leading provider of computer networks and support for small business. Reece Computer Systems builds and supports Smarter Networks® for small businesses in the Bay Area, and was awarded Small Business of the Year in 2008 by Senator Leland Yee.

This union will ensure that Reece's customers continue to receive the highest quality, most cost-effective technology solutions possible. All Covered and Reece Computer Systems both believe that no small business is too small to have the best technology solutions available to them, and both provide experienced, educated and certified personnel to solve the IT problems of small businesses.

Randy Reece, CEO of Reece Computer Systems, announced that "the benefit our customers see is the strength of this national team behind their familiar local team, working to ensure their small businesses stay competitive. If you are a current Reece Computer Systems customer, the support teams that we have in place will continue to work with you under the same contracted conditions. Our focus is ensuring your IT systems serve your business needs, and All Covered feels the same way."

Merralee Retallick, Regional Vice President of All Covered, said "All Covered has been providing small businesses with computer networking and Managed Services since 1997, has a proven track record in providing 7x24 support, and the best IT solutions in the business. We are very excited about being able to extend the breadth and depth of what we provide with Reece Computer Systems."

All Covered's business model provides the benefits of a company that works locally, in more than 20 cities around the nation, with the synergies of a national organization. All Covered customers have access to a centralized call center that can resolve most issues, day or night, centralized solution development, and the power of hundreds of people ensuring optimum support.
